It is mandatory for undergraduate and master students who apply to the Erasmus Mundus Accion 2 programme to submit a Language Proficiency Certificate (minimum level B1 of the language of instruction) issued by any of the institutions listed in the file:

<http://sl.ugr.es/02Ij>

If an official language proficiency certificate issued by one of the organizations mentioned in the list of organizations recognized by our university cannot be provided before the deadline of the call for applications, potential applicants may submit other certificates that indicate a sufficient level of language competence.

The language proficiency should be expressed in terms of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages regarding speaking, writing, listening and reading. These certificates will be examined by the university-wide committee for language accreditation, and those meeting the international standards applied in the table mentioned above will be accepted. Notwithstanding, the Universidad de Granada reserves the right to accept or refuse any non-official language proficiency certificate which does not guarantee those standards on an individual basis during the application and evaluation phase.

Undergraduate and master students pre-selected for a scholarship MUST provide an official language proficiency certificate before they can receive an invitation letter for their stay at the Universidad de Granada.

If candidates cannot provide one of the official certificates accepted for Spanish language, they MUST take the UGR official Spanish online exam (organised by the Centro de Lenguas Modernas of UGR). The examination, which will take place around end of May or first fortnight of June, will be divided into two parts: (a) a written part supervised by a responsible person from the home institution and (b) a spoken part done through skype. The exam has to be supervised by a professor or a responsible person from the students' home university. Students passing the examination may receive an official accreditation certificate from the Modern Languages Centre of the University of Granada, on payment of the corresponding fees.

Only those students who provide an Official Language Proficiency Certificate or pass the exam organised by the UGR, may be admitted at our university.
